Judge George A. O'Toole, Jr.
United States District Court
District of Massachusetts
1 Courthouse Way
Boston, MA 02210

Dear Judge O'Toole,

I am submitting this cover letter and attached resume as part of my formal application for a position as a judicial law clerk with your chambers.

Clerking for the District of Massachusetts represents the culmination of many years of hard work and determination, and an opportunity to continue to explore my passion for the law and helping others.

While serving as a law clerk for Judge William S. Greenberg of the United States Court of Appeals for Veterans Claims, I have been afforded the opportunity to not only further develop my legal research, writing, and analysis skills, but also to give back and serve a most deserving class of individuals. Having personally contributed to over 200 single judge dispositions, 10 panel decisions, and two en banc matters, I have navigated the deepest depths of a challenging regulatory scheme and tackled the complexities of crafting solutions to novel legal issues. I learned about the challenges of balancing competing interests, including, empathizing with each veterans' individual circumstances, applying the law equitably, and giving deference to the ultimate decision maker. More specifically, I learned that the fairest decision is not always the easiest decision to draft and justify.

Similarly, while working in private practice, I represented musicians and authors; advocating for them as they sought to protect their life's work. Witnessing clients' ideas and art be copied and stolen exposed me to a different, but equally intricate, area of law that presented a unique set of issues. Fighting copyright infringement required me to develop legal solutions that were just as creative as the works in dispute. I was able to take my clients' passion for creating and channel that energy into my legal career.

These experiences have allowed me to grow as a person and ultimately into the attorney that I am today. I am eager to continue serve those in need and I am excited at the opportunity to study the law under Your Honor's direction.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,
Christopher Pearsall

Judge George A. O'Toole Jr.
United States District Court
District of Massachusetts
1 Courthouse Way, Suite 2300
Boston, MA 02108

Dear Judge O'Toole,

I am a recent graduate of Boston University School of Law writing to apply for a clerkship position for the 2023-2024 term. As someone with legal experience working for a district attorney's office, a legal services organization, and a corporate law firm, I believe I would make a strong addition as a clerk in a trial court. Additionally, I plan to practice in Massachusetts long-term, and hope to eventually work on constitutional cases. Therefore, I believe that exposure to the adversarial process in a federal district court will enable me to gauge how constitutional issues are raised and litigated, and allow me to become a well-rounded advocate.

As a law student, I devoted my time to developing my legal research and writing skills. As a 2L, I served as a staff editor with the Boston University International Law Journal and produced a journal note that was selected for publication. I also participated in a writing-intensive study abroad program at the University of Oxford where I wrote two to three weekly research essays on international law topics. As a 3L, I completed an advanced legal research course as well as an upper-level writing course. I was also a member of the Civil Litigation Clinic where I drafted answers, written discovery, and led a mediation in housing court for a client facing disability discrimination. I am confident that my academic and clinical experiences, along with my professional background, have provided me with the skills to analyze the broad range of legal issues I will encounter as a clerk in your chambers.

Attached is my resume, transcripts, writing sample, and letters of recommendation. Please do not hesitate to reach out if you require any additional materials. I appreciate your time and consideration and I hope to have the opportunity to interview with you soon.

Sincerely,

Alden Piper

Dear Judge O'Toole,

I hope this letter finds you well. I am a 2015 graduate of Amherst College and a 2020 graduate of Columbia Law School, and I currently work as a litigation associate at O'Melveny & Myers LLP in New York. I write to humbly request consideration for a clerkship in your chambers for the term beginning on or around October 2, 2023. Enclosed, please find my resume, law school transcript, undergraduate transcript, and writing sample. Letters of recommendation from Kristen Underhill (Professor of Law at Cornell Law School, formerly of Columbia Law), Matthew Murphy (Counsel at O'Melveny & Myers LLP), and Patrick McKegney (Executive Director of U.S. Litigation at Morgan Stanley) will follow.

While I have already secured a clerkship with Judge Clarke in the Southern District of New York beginning in the Fall of 2024, I would be humbled by the opportunity to return to Massachusetts in the form of another clerkship to fully hone my craft in the jurisdiction I hope to return to later in my career. Moreover, as an aspiring trial litigator who enjoys working and collaborating with others, I would relish the opportunity to work in your chambers and reap the benefits of your knowledge and experience. My passion for litigation naturally translates to this work: I enjoy discussing complex legal issues, thinking objectively (and critically) about individual circumstances, advocating for and respecting others, and coming to well-reasoned, justifiable decisions as required by those circumstances.

My work to date has prepared me well for this role. In my nearly three years of practice, I've researched, briefed, and been exposed to a variety of legal issues, including securities fraud, deceptive advertising, insurance coverage, breach of contract, and common law torts (such as negligence and fraud). These litigations have taken me to several jurisdictions, including New York, Massachusetts, Illinois, and Florida. I have also been exposed to regulatory work in the form of Hart-Scott Rodino filings, and even worked with companies to advise them in connection with government investigations and enforcement actions.

Our profession materially impacts individuals, businesses, and our society overall. I understand the decisions I would help make will affect peoples' lives and well-being, and so I treat that reality with enormous respect and responsibility. I would look forward to bringing my legal and personal experiences as a Black man to bare on these important discussions, and I would be honored to take that journey with you and my co-clerks.

Please let me know if I can provide anything else to support my candidacy. Regardless of the outcome, I'm truly humbled to write this letter, and I thank you for your consideration.

Best,

Kobina

Dear Judge O'Toole:

I am the Health Law Fellow at MedStar Health and a graduate of Georgetown University Law Center and The Georgetown Law Journal. I am writing to apply for a 2023-2024 clerkship in your chambers.

I would like to clerk in Boston because I would like to become a prosecutor of health care fraud and abuse law. The professor of my health care fraud and abuse law class stated that the District of Massachusetts was a district where a high proportion of cases filed were related to health care fraud due to the high concentration of health care and pharmaceutical companies in Boston. If I am able to clerk, I plan to seek a career as a prosecutor immediately after. If I clerked in Boston, I would gain knowledge of Boston's business and legal market that would promote effectiveness as a health care fraud prosecutor in Boston. Also, my roommate is from Watertown. I have visited Boston with him and thoroughly enjoyed my time there.

Enclosed please find a copy of my resume, my law school transcript, my undergraduate transcript, and my writing sample. Letters of recommendation from Professor Rima Sirota (202-662-9841), Professor Joseph Micallef (202-736-8492), and Jennifer Siegel, Hospital Counsel at MedStar Health, (301-351-5912) are attached.

Dear Judge O'Toole,

I am writing to express my strong interest in the Clerkship position within your chambers for the 2023-2024 term. As a current law clerk for the Supreme Court of the United States Virgin Islands, I have gained valuable experience in legal reasoning, research, and writing. I am confident that my skills and passion for the law would make me a unique asset to your team. My current clerkship ends September 2, 2023, and I am available to begin any time after that date.

At the Supreme Court of the Virgin Islands, I have gained an in-depth understanding of appellate proceedings and a high level of familiarity with rulemaking as a part of the judiciary. In my day-to-day experiences, I encounter and help resolve issues drawing on the wide base of common law from every state and jurisdiction to decide the best course of action. This experience has sharpened my analytical and communication skills and has equipped me with the ability to work collaboratively with others.

I am particularly interested in returning to my hometown of Boston, Massachusetts, this coming fall. I am a member of the Massachusetts Bar and have a deep desire to return to the state full-time upon the completion of my current clerkship. My previous experience at the U.S. District Court of Massachusetts, where I gained a deep understanding of the local court procedures and practice, further cemented my interest in working in Massachusetts. In addition to my legal experience, I have also gained valuable knowledge of statutory interpretation through my work at the U.S Senate Committee for Commerce, Science, and Transportation.

I am excited to continue expanding my legal knowledge and skills through a clerkship at the U.S. District Court of Massachusetts. I believe that my experience, coupled with my willingness to learn and tackle challenging assignments, makes me an excellent candidate for the clerkship position in your chambers, and I have full willingness to provide administrative support.

Please find attached my class evaluations and evaluations from my supervisors at previous co-ops for your review. I would be honored to meet with you to discuss my qualifications further and am available at your convenience.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute to the important work in your chambers.

Sincerely,
David Stout

Dear Judge Richman:

I am writing to express my strong interest in serving as a law clerk in your chambers for the 2023-2024 term. I recently graduated summa cum laude from Temple Beasley School of Law and plan to pursue a career in litigation after taking and hopefully passing the bar exam. Though New England winters are notoriously unpleasant, I would love the opportunity to return to Massachusetts. I believe that working alongside you would provide an invaluable opportunity to learn from an established jurist and allow me to contribute to the legal community before entering private practice.

I have taken every opportunity available to deepen my understanding and appreciation of the judiciary system. My experiences as an intern for Eastern District of Pennsylvania Magistrate Judge David Strawbridge and EEOC Administrative Law Judge Natasha Abel provided me the opportunity to view effective advocacy techniques and learn courtroom etiquette. I would leverage these experiences to quickly integrate into your team and be an asset from the outset.

At Temple, I was selected as a Teaching Assistant for three 1L doctrinal courses (Contracts, Property, and Criminal Law) and Federal Income Taxation as well as assisted Professor Craig Green with legal history research. Working with Professor Green helped me advance and expand my research and writing skills by pushing me to develop arguments about previously foreign topics. In addition to my research with Professor Green, I completed a long-form essay about recent developments in federal habeas corpus procedural law, for which I received Temple's Jacob Kossman Award in Criminal Law. That prize is given to the student who submitted the best paper in the field of constitutional rights and privileges of persons accused of a crime. My research and writing experience, as well as my intense curiosity about the law, would be valuable as a judicial clerk because I expect to encounter cases regarding unfamiliar and complex matters regularly.

Please find copies of my resume, my unofficial law school and undergraduate transcripts, a writing sample, and three letters of recommendation attached. I would welcome the opportunity to discuss my candidacy with you further and can be reached at (713) 724-3563 or emorystrawn@gmail.com. Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,
Emory A. Strawn

Honorable Judge O'Toole,

I am thrilled to submit my application for the district court law clerk position for the 2023-2024 term. The opportunity to contribute my legal expertise and dedication to your esteemed chambers is incredibly appealing, and I am eager to make valuable contributions to your work during the term clerkship.

As a passionate legal professional with exceptional research and writing skills, I am confident in my ability to excel in a fast-paced and interactive judicial environment. Currently serving as a judicial law clerk at the New Mexico Court of Appeals under the esteemed guidance of Judge Wray, a former legal writing professor, I have honed my ability to address intricate legal questions through diligent analysis of briefs, comprehensive independent research, and a thorough review of authorities. My tenure has also allowed me to engage in real-time discussions with judges, collaborate effectively with colleagues, and maintain a high standard of written and verbal communication. Moreover, my time as a judicial law clerk has further fortified my ability to work independently while being an integral part of a collaborative team. I am prepared to engage in respectful debate on a variety of issues, embracing the interactive nature of your chambers wholeheartedly. The prospect of contributing to the judicial process and supporting your chambers' objectives excites me, and I firmly believe that my exceptional legal research and writing skills, coupled with my ability to analyze complex legal issues, align perfectly with the requirements of the law clerk position.

Throughout my legal career, I have demonstrated a commitment to excellence, upholding the principles of justice, and contributing to the legal community. My experiences as a Law Review editor and diverse legal encounters during law school have equipped me with the necessary skills to excel in this role. I hold a J.D. degree, and my prior legal research and writing experiences have instilled in me a deep appreciation for conducting thorough research and providing well-structured and informative materials.

I am enthusiastic about the potential to learn from your esteemed expertise and contribute my own insights to the cases and matters before the court. The opportunity to work under your guidance would undoubtedly enrich my understanding of the legal system and foster my professional growth significantly.

I am available at your earliest convenience for an interview and am eager to discuss how my skills and dedication can contribute to the success of your chambers during the 2023-2024 term. Thank you for considering my application. I am eagerly looking forward to the possibility of serving as a law clerk in your esteemed court and the opportunity to support the pursuit of justice.

Sincerely,
